HARLEM SECOND DAY.

A crowd almost as large as Monday's went out to Harlem yesterday, attracted by the splendid card as well as the balmy weather. The sport was tip top throughout the afternoon, thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators. No stake or feature event was on the program, the best race of the day being the third, a mile and a sixteenth affair for three-year-olds and upward. The improving Canmore was made a red hot favorite and justified the confidence placed in him by the public by winning hands down. It was only an exercise gallop for the Jennings colt which ran in front for the entire journey. He led at the quarter by one length, with Kunja second almost two in front of Brutal, Precursor and Amur even at this early stage of the proceedings were hopelessly out of the contest. At the half the son of Midlothian had increased his advantage to almost three lengths, with Kunja still a half in the lead of Brutal. Little change took place in these positions until in the last eighth, where Brutal finally succeeded in passing Kunja, more on his own courage than any effort of his jockey, beating her a length for second place. Canmore won eased up by two and a half lengths. Amur ran a dull race, while Precursor was sadly outrun from start to finish.

All interest in the fourth race was completely spoiled by Telamon, which, taking the bit in his mouth at the first breakaway, ran away three miles at full speed, little Meade, who had the mount, being unable to check the heavy headed colt. This was the first time the son of Hanover had faced the flag since last winter. After this mishap it appeared like a cakewalk for Six Shooter, but his backers got a bad scare in the last eighth, Argregor hanging on with great gameness and compelling Knight to urge the Respass colt to the limit to defeat him. Henry Burt, closely accompanied by Argregor, showed the way to the run in, with Six Shooter about two lengths away. Straightening for home the last named closed, causing fast Henry Burt to give it up. Everybody was now preparing to greet the son of Sir Dixon an easy winner, but Argregor was not to be easily shaken off. In the last sixteenth Knight urged his mount to the utmost, finally crossing the line a half length in the lead. The Boots colt showed great gameness in the last eighth and put up a fair performance. Henry Burt was beaten seven lengths for the second position.

That consistent little filly, Julia Junkin, carried off the fifth race in a somewhat handy fashion. Mabel Winn, which has shown great speed in nearly every race she has started in this year, showed the way to the last eighth, accompanied by Muresca, with Julia Junkin lying along in fourth position. Along in here Muresca had enough, while Mabel Winn was beginning to show signs of distress, and it was no trouble whatever for Julia Junkin to pass them, winning hands down by a length. Mabel Winn just lasted long enough to beat the fast closing The Four Hundred a head for the second position. Parnassus showed to fair advantage while Harry Wilson's race was almost as good as the winner's. He was almost last away and lengths behind the leader before he got well into his stride. He made up much ground while coming down the final quarter and was running past horses at the end. With an equal break he would certainly have given the winner an argument. Blue Ridge ran well up for five furlongs and is due for a bracket when placed right.

The day's opener went to Pat Dunne's Emathion who was about due to score. Off well he assumed an early lead and after shaking off Ravensbury who had run with him to the last eighth, went on and won rather handsly by a length from Landseer which beat Pompey about the same distance for second position. The last named moved up fast just before entering the stretch from a poor getoff and appeared to be the winner when a furlong out, but the sudden use made of him in the early part of the race must have taken all the stamina out of him as he had nothing to finish with and was well spent at the end. Landseer finished stoutly but was not good enough to beat the winner. Ravensbury only quit in the last eighth and must be taken into consideration from now on. Hermis was virtually left at the post, but ran an impressive race making up much ground when coming down the stretch. With any kind of racing luck he would have been a keen contender.

The finale was won by Gawaine, but had the race been a few yards farther Brief would surely have grabbed the purse. Pirate's Queen showed the way to the run in, where Gawaine, which had always laid second, easily passed her. In the last eighth Brief moved up fast and was gaining on Gawaine at every stride, the latter passing over the line a head in the lead. Illusion, which was quite tired in the closing strides, was third, two lengths away. Dalkeith showed a good race up to a sixteenth out where he began to hang. Monos was messed in and out all through the race, Dominick finding every available pocket. The horse finished with speed unexpected and his race was a good deal better than it shows on paper.

Winner—B. c, by Goldfinch—Dareka. Went to post at 2:15. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Stranger easily showed the way throughout and is evidently close to being a crackjack. Five Nations was sore in his preliminary. His race was fully up to the mark, however. Peninsula is only of moderate caliber and failed to exhibit gameness at the end. Rocky ran a promising race for a first out. Rightaway ran a bad race and was far outclassed. Batha broke and ran very green.

Winner—Ch. c, by Kingston—Park Ridge. Went to post at 2:58. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Sarnar was best and ran a speedy and game race. Wayward Boy ran in greatly improved form. Ringleader displayed a good burst of speed and hung on well. Dr. Riddle was poorly handled and the finish on him lacked vigor. He should have been a contender and possibly the winner with a good ride. Ondurdis got off badly and was pocketed for nearly the entire journey.

Scratched—27029 Mayor Gilroy, 104; 27116 Royal Sterling, 107.

Overweights—Wayward Boy, 1 pound; Ringleader, 1; Vesuvia, 1; Sam Devere, 1; Wool Gatherer, 1.

Winner—B. f, by Meddler—Sunnyside. Went to post at 3:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Morningside was best at the weights and displayed brilliant speed and ability to stay. Reina ran a grand race at the weights and was an eased up second, unable to concede the weight to the winner. The race was nearly a first-class one from the time standpoint and big weights carried. Sweet Lavender failed, as usual, to stay, but was very speedy for the first half. Scotch Bush was used up in following Sweet Lavender's fast pace and probably lacked condition. She had been highly tried for this race. Sadie S. is stale and sulked throughout.

Scratched—27235 Anecdote, 116; 26880 Petra II, 116; 25799 Golden Grain, 107.

Corrected weights—Scotch Bush, 109.

Winner—B. f, by Florist—Czarina II. Went to post at 3:50. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Mary Worth is a grand looker and had worked remarkable trials and she ran up to both in every particular. Octoroon had no mishaps, showed much speed and hung on well. Caughnawaga and Royal Sue are coming crackjacks and ran fine races for their first public trials. Grand Opera is a slow beginner and develops slowly and should show much better later in the season.

Scratched—25305 Miss Fisher, 109.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Says a Lexington dispatch of Sunday to a Cincinnati newspaper: "Fillies of royal breeding, recently purchased for Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, have been turned over to T. C. McDowell to be trained at Ashland Farm, near Lexington, Ky.
They will be raced as two-year-olds, at the expiration of which time they will be sent to Mr.
Vanderbilt's breeding establishment in France.
The following is a list of yearlings purchased:
Brown filly, by Halma—Clatterfoot, by Strath-
more.

Chestnut filly, by Halma—Palce, by Macaroni.
Chestnut filly, by Ornament—Oriana, by Onondaga.

Chestnut filly, by Ornament—Maggie Gray, by Spendthrift.

Chestnut filly, by Ornament—Von Hera, by Hanover.

Chestnut filly, by Ornament—Charity, by Spendthrift.

Chestnut filly, by Ornament—Alarming, by Alarm.

Brown filly, by Ornament—Happy Sallie, by Petrach.

Chestnut colt, by Halma—Blarney, by Shin-
glass.

"There was considerable excitement in local social circles and in Kentucky generally when it was announced that McDowell had agreed to train for Vanderbilt. They did not think that a member of an old Kentucky family combining the blood of the Clays and McDowells would enter the employ of any man as trainer and consent to be a social inferior. There was considerable relief in consequence when McDowell announced that such a statement was propositious and that he would have a partnership
interest in all of the horses under his care.
This probably means that McDowell will have an interest in the running qualities of these youngsters."

The New York Sun of Sunday says: "The story was revived yesterday that the Empire
City track near Yonkers, built by the late W. H.
Clark, will be purchased by a syndicate of turf-men and reopened to the public next year. It was stated that P. J. Dwyer, president of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, is at the head of the movement and that John B. McDonald, the Rapid Transit tunnel contractor, has drawn up plans for needed improvements. City Register Isaac Fromme, who is counsel for the administrators, Mrs. Clark and her brother, John B.
Sexton, said yesterday in explanation of the situation:

"Because of good and sufficient reasons, it is deemed advisable to sell the Empire City track.
It is splendidly located and fully equipped, and we know that it is eagerly desired for racing purposes. So it is a safe conclusion that it will bring a good price. Even if the men who wish to buy it as a track should not be willing to pay a sufficient sum, real estate operators would readily take the property, as its worth is established and indubitable."

"Racing men, including Mr. Dwyer, professed to know nothing about the story. They said that so far as they knew no negotiations had been opened, and that under the present state of affairs the track was undesirably located and could not be considered as a possibility until transit facilities have been vastly improved."

I'M IN SARATOGA, But I Don't Want Your Money

in advance. With WINNING INFORMATION I find it unnecessary to ask pay in advance.
I never wire except am absolutely sure and know the "stable money" is being played. With the many horses arriving here from the west, the form player is lost, and to beat "Saratoga" no one can help you better than I. I've been here for several days, devote my entire time watching every detail and preparation at the track, and am in "THE KNOW." I don't ask $2 or $5 per day in advance for information. Instead, SIMPLY BET $2 FOR ME on the horse I wire you. This makes GENUINE "inside information" cost you nothing, and proves I'M NOT GUESSING. My only demand is that you enclose 40 cents in your first letter (ONLY) as a deposit to guarantee acceptance of telegrams. (This deposit to be returned to you when we sever our business relations.) I will then immediately mail you my CODE. Please note that to protect you, and my stable friends, I WILL SEND TELE-GRAMS IN MY "SPECIAL" CODE ONLY. Address

Went to post at 3:50. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Anna Elliott was lucky and well handled and ran to her best form. The same can be said of Mada Bell. Attelle was much the best but she got off badly and was badly ridden and never had a chance to extend herself until she got to the stretch, then she came like a whirlwind. Florris S. did not run her race. The others had no mishaps.

She caught Ernest Parham in the final sixteenth and was going away at the end. Ernest Parham was raced into exhaustion in front. Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Miss Colton.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. The Boer was much the best. Off well, he went to the front when called on, and increasing his lead at every stride was pulled almost to a walk at the end. Ruth Park ran a surprisingly good race. She was under a drive throughout the last eighth. Remark's race was up to the mark. Red Apple lost ground at the start when his rider started to pull up. The effort told on him in closing a big gap and he fell back in the stretch. The last three were never serious contenders.
Overweights—Oricius, 2 pounds.
Ruth Park, show, 6 to 1. Remark, show, out. Red Apple, show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Melodrama—Impression.
Went to post at 3:26. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Stamp, well ridden, raced Athara into exhaustion, and successfully stalling off Walkenshaw and Ben O'Fallon in the stretch, came home an easy winner. Ben O'Fallon saved ground on the stretch turn, but had to do his best to head San Andres out. The latter did not get to running well until the field was in the stretch. She then closed up stoutly. Walkenshaw ran well for his first time out here. He appeared dangerous at the head of the stretch, but tired in the final sixteenth. Athara was off running and tired under his own pace.
Stamp, show, evens. Ben O'Fallon, show, 1 to 2. John McElroy, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Deceiver—Mamie Cole.
Went to post at 3:52. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Meggs' race was consistent. He was hard ridden through the final sixteenth to stall off Ed Roth. The latter had a stormy journey to the head of the stretch, where saving ground, he came through next to the rail and ran past everything but Meggs. Himtine showed plenty of speed but tired in the last eighth. Tempt finished strongly. She was interfered with on the last turn and forced to pull up. Too much use was made of Alzura. Times Star was knocked into the fence at the start and dropped out of it.
Scratched—27184 Dr. Clark, 119; 27129 Antagon, 117.

Winner—Ch. c. by The Kaiser—Bettie Archer.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Enghurst finished strongly and just got up in time. He had a big gap to close from the half post and was compelled to go around his field. Charley Shane faltered when a sixteenth out, but came again under punishment. He has improved with every race. Dr. Fannie had no mishap and ran her race. Brown Vail's race was a big improvement. Custodian showed early speed, but the pace was too hot for him. Prince Zeno showed a flash of speed, but quickly retired. Nelse Morris failed to run up to his past form.
Scratched—13008 Urganda, 103; 27270 King Elkwood, 98; 27185 Round O, 96.

Went to post at 4:49. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Ben Milam is a quick breaker. He raced in front all the way and was never in trouble. Louis Wagner was in a close bunch to the head of the stretch. From there on he took the overland route and finished fast, nailing Judge Du Relle on the post for second place. The latter was bumped and knocked about on the first turn, losing considerable ground. Six Bits ran impressively, but he went wide on the stretch turn.
Scratched—25483 Sir Clifford, 102.
